Pickens County Sheriff's Office Charge Liberty Woman in Stabbing Incident

The Pickens County Sheriff's Office has arrested a Liberty resident after responding to an altercation earlier this morning. The Sheriff's Office received reports at approximately 4:45am that a woman had just been stabbed at 656 Anthony Rd in Pickens.

Deputies arrived on the scene and found an adult female with an injury to her side consistent with what appeared to be a stab or puncture wound. There were two other adults (male and female) at the residence during the encounter.

The victim, who identified the below woman as the person that had "stabbed" her, was transported to a local hospital where she has undergone surgery for her injuries. The motive for the assault is still under investigation.

Sydney Ann Sanders (21yoa) was placed under arrest at the residence and transported to the Pickens County Detention Center where she is currently being detained on the following offense:
