Pickens County Sheriff's Office Charges Third Inmate in Escape from County Prison

The Pickens County Sheriff's Office has continued to investigate the circumstances surrounding the escape of two inmates earlier this week on Tuesday, December 4, 2018. The investigation has led to an additional inmate being charged with his attempt to escape the facility during the incident.

Timothy Paul Lucero (35yoa) was served with the additional charge late yesterday afternoon on the violation of Attempted Escape. Lucero remains incarcerated within the Pickens County Detention Center.

Charge:
Attempted Escape

Warrant#:
2018A3910101472

Bond:
$15,000.00

Mr. Lucero has been detained in Pickens County since November 13, 2018. I have attached to this release a criminal history to include prior convictions with pending charges, a copy of the above warrant and a mug shot.

The Sheriff's Office is obligated to remind everyone that criminal charges are merely accusations and the defendant is presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty in criminal court proceedings.
